

Marlborough House Vinehall Boarding House Aims and Ethos

To create a safe, supportive and nurturing home-from-home environment

Where every pupil feels secure, valued, and respected, enabling them to thrive both personally and academically.

To foster independence, responsibility and self-discipline

Helping pupils develop life skills, confidence, and resilience in preparation for future education and life beyond school.

To promote a strong sense of community

Encouraging kindness, trust, cooperation and mutual respect among boarders and staff, so that everyone feels a sense of belonging.

To celebrate and embrace equality, diversity and inclusion

Ensuring that all pupils, regardless of background, identity, or belief, are treated with fairness and dignity, and that the boarding house is a place where different cultures, perspectives, and experiences are respected and welcomed.

To support the emotional, social, and spiritual wellbeing of every boarder

Providing guidance and care tailored to the individual needs of each child and promoting positive mental health and personal growth.

To encourage active participation in the life of the school

Inspiring boarders to engage fully in academic, sporting, creative, and community activities, building friendships and developing a wide range of interests.

To maintain high standards of pastoral care and safeguarding

Upholding professional, ethical, and legal responsibilities to protect and nurture all children in our care.
